REQUIREMENTS

What is the National Driver Register? The National Driver Register (NDR) is a computerized database of information about drivers who have had their licenses revoked or suspended or have been convicted of a serious traffic violation for which they still have sanctions that need to be satisfied. State motor vehicle agencies provide the NDR a list of individuals who have lost their privileges to drive, and a “hold” is placed on the license. Prior to issuing or reissuing a driver's license, the state DMV checks the registry. If a person is listed, the license may be denied. The individual's license may be held until all sanctions have been satisfied. Once the hold is removed, there is no longer a record maintained on the NDR.

Why do I have a hold on my driver's license? Individuals that are ticketed for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated face both civil and criminal sanctions. The court determines what criminal penalties to impose on the offender. They often include, but are not limited to jail time, fines, education, substance abuse evaluation, community service, and restitution to victims. State law determines what civil penalties are imposed on the offender to reinstate their driving privileges. In most cases drivers that offend outside of their own state face sanctions in both the state they offended in, as well as their home state or state they hold a driver's license in. Failure to satisfactorily complete the requirements will result in a hold being placed on your license in the National Driver Register.

Can I take the alcohol education class online? Iowa does not accept online classes. Classes must be taken in a classroom setting at a state approved facility.

Where can I take the alcohol education class in Iowa? We maintain a listing of all approved facilities in Iowa at: Facility Locator

Where can I get a substance abuse evaluation in Iowa? We maintain a listing of all approved facilities in Iowa at: Facility Locator

Is there a statute of limitations on having to complete the requirements? No. Every person who received an OWI/DUI in Iowa or Iowa residents who offend in another state must complete the requirements.

What are the penalties for an OWI? OWI offenders in Iowa face both criminal and civil penalties. The court determines what criminal penalties to impose on the offender. They often include, but are not limited to jail time, fines, education, substance abuse evaluation, community service, and restitution to victims. State law determines what civil penalties are imposed for the offender to reinstate their driving privileges.

What is a 48 hour class? Iowa requires a first time offender to spend 48 hours in jail and complete an alcohol education course. Some providers have combined the jail requirement and the education requirement. The offender attends the class at a local hotel where they are under house arrest, and required to submit to random alcohol/drug testing. The cost of the 48 hour program includes the cost of the class plus the cost of lodging, meals, security, and testing. With the approval of the judge, the offender completing the 48 hour program is not required to go to jail for the OWI offense.

Does AA count for the alcohol education class? No, Iowa requires that an OWI offender complete an alcohol education class in a classroom setting.

When stopped, I refused to be tested (did not submit breath or blood sample). Do I still need to comply with the sanctions? Yes.

It has been a number of years since I was charged with the OWI. Is there a statute of limitations for having to complete the requirements? No. If the Iowa Department of Transportation shows that any requirements have not been completed, the hold will remain on your record until you have provided documentation to show it has been completed.

I don't live in Iowa. Do I still need to take the alcohol education and substance abuse evaluation? Yes

Can I take my alcohol education class outside of Iowa? Yes. Iowa will accept alcohol education courses taken outside of Iowa as long as it has been approved by the state in which it is offered, is completed in a classroom setting, and is at least 8 hours in length.

How can I find a place to take the alcohol education class in a state other than Iowa? We maintain a listing of approved facilities throughout the country. Please contact our office for assistance by emailing your name and location (city, state, zip) to OWIowa@iowa.gov or by calling 515-281-5251.

How can I find a place to do a substance abuse evaluation in a state other than Iowa? We maintain a listing of approved facilities throughout the country. Please contact our office for assistance by emailing your name and location (city, state, zip) to OWIowa@iowa.gov or by calling 515-281-5251.

What is a substance abuse evaluation/assessment? A substance abuse evaluation is used to assess whether an individual is chemically dependent and would benefit from treatment. A variety of diagnostic tools may be used by the evaluator to make this determination. At the completion of the assessment, a summary report by the evaluator should be prepared. You are entitled to receive a copy of this evaluation.

I need to know what my blood alcohol content (BAC) was when I was arrested. How can I get that? Contact the arresting law enforcement agency or the Iowa Department of Transportation at 800-532-1121.

The judge dismissed my OWI case. Why do I still need to take the alcohol education class and substance abuse evaluation? In Iowa, an individual charged with an OWI faces both criminal (courts), and civil (driving) sanctions. At the time an individual is arrested for the OWI, a copy of the citation is directed to both the court and the driving authority (Iowa Department of Transportation - IDOT). The court system does not notify the DOT of the dismissal. The IDOT still requires that the offender satisfy the sanctions.

I completed my education and evaluation outside of Iowa. How long does it take to clear the hold on my record? There are several things that can impact the hold on your license. It normally takes 48 hours for the hold to be lifted once all of the following have been received and processed:

- Payment of civil penalty to the Iowa Department of Transportation
- Certificate of completion of an alcohol education class
- Payment of processing fee for alcohol education class
- Substance abuse evaluation completion
- Treatment completion if recommended during substance abuse evaluation
- Complete revocation period
- Show proof of SR22 if applicable
- Comply with interlock requirements if applicable

I am an Iowa driver and got an OWI in another state. What is required of me? Iowa requires that you satisfy the requirements of the state that you offended in AND the requirement of Iowa. You can review your reinstatement requirements online at:
<https://mymvd.iowadot.gov/Account/Login>

If I complete my alcohol education class in Iowa, do I need to send anything in to be processed? No. The agency at which the class was taken is responsible for electronically notifying the Iowa Department of Transportation that the class has been completed.

When and why do I need to complete a Residency Statement? The Residency Statement is used to notify the Iowa Department of Transportation that you are no longer an Iowa resident. Someone who is required to file SR22 insurance, but is not a resident of Iowa can submit a Residency Statement in order to waive the SR22 requirement.

I completed treatment. Do I still need to take the alcohol education class? Treatment does not always include an educational component. If your treatment did include at least 8 hours of alcohol education, and the treatment facility specifically states this in your treatment completion documentation, then no. If however your treatment did not include an educational component, then yes, you will need to complete at least 8 hours of alcohol education in a classroom setting.

I can't afford to take the alcohol education class or do the substance abuse evaluation.
You may wish to contact the agency to see if they have a reduction of fees program.

DOCUMENTS

What documents does the Iowa Department of Education Alcohol Education Program process? If you took an alcohol education class, a substance abuse evaluation or completed treatment outside of the state of Iowa, the Iowa Department of Education will process your completion documentation, and electronically notify the Iowa Department of Transportation that you have completed the requirements. If you took the alcohol education class, substance abuse evaluation or treatment, the Iowa agency at which you completed your requirement is responsible for electronically notifying the Iowa Department of Transportation of your completion. An Iowa agency might withhold completion information until you have paid any fees owed to them for the services they provided.

PAYMENTS/FEES

Is there a fee for sending documents? If you completed your alcohol education class outside of Iowa, there is a $25 processing fee. It is a onetime fee, and may be paid at any point in time. There is no fee for processing substance abuse evaluation/treatment documentation.

How can I pay my $25 document processing fee? You may pay online with a debit or credit card (VISA, Master Card, or Discover) at <https://epay.educateiowa.gov> or send a cashier's check or money order made out to the Iowa Department of Education through postal mail to the address below. We do not accept personal checks.
